

Discover Cherokee Rafting 2008

THE OCOEE RIVER - trip is five miles of thundering rapids that flows through the Cherokee National Forest. The Ocoee is a class IV River and provides some of the most exciting whitewater in the U.S. Experience rapids like Broken Nose, Double Suck and Hell's Hole for a super thrilling ride. Rafting is not just for the young and athletic. It's an incredible adventure for families and groups of all kinds.

CHEROKEE RAFTING, INC. - was started in 1978 as a family run operation and it is still running strong today. Many have followed our lead, but none have maintained the family values our company was founded on. Cherokee Rafting takes your trip and satisfaction seriously because it's not just a business to us; it's a family way of life.

HOW TO PLAN YOUR TRIP

1. Have your group to select a couple of dates and times that they prefer.
2. Call us for reservation availability.
3. Full payment is due at least two weeks before the trip. A deposit will hold the reservation if time allows.
4. Call to confirm your trip date, time and size of group.
5. Plan to arrive 30 minutes before your trip time and come prepared to have a great time.

THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW - Trips will be cancelled due to extreme weather or water conditions at our discretion. Children must be 12 years old or older to raft. Minors must have the signature of an adult on a liability waiver. We reserve the right to refuse services to anyone under the influence of drugs or alcohol. No refunds will be made in such cases. REMEMBER! We do not keep valuables so if you bring them, lock them in your car. You may check your car keys at the front desk.

OUR GUIDES - devote themselves whole heartily to ensure your finest outdoor experience possible. They are highly trained professionals and will instruct you before and during your whitewater adventure helping to make your trip exciting, safe, and memorable.
